

CLEVELAND TELLS
WHY HE VETOED IT.REASONS GIVEN FOR NOT SIGN-ING THE BLIND BILL.

In His Message He Says the Measure is Loosely Drawn—Silver Men Seem Unable to Combine on a Plan to Meet the Emergency That Arises.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Long before the house was called to order yesterday the news had spread over the floor that the President had vetoed the seigniorage bill. Mr. Bland was not present at the time and messengers who went to find him were unable to do so, and consequently there was no means of ascertaining from the leading authority in the silver camp what would be the program. Among his followers three different courses were suggested. One was that the house should proceed at once to the consideration of the veto and attempt to pass the bill by a two-thirds vote. A second was that the feelings of conservative silver men should be spared, the bill referred to the committee on coinage and the minority of the committee given a chance to join in a report against overriding the veto if they desired before any more steps were taken. The third and last proposal was to let the whole business go till the senate could act on the tariff bill and then to tack to the end of that measure a clause providing for the coinage of the seigniorage, so that the President would be compelled either to veto the whole tariff bill or to approve the seigniorage provision. The advocates of this scheme answered the objection that a seigniorage clause would not be germane to the tariff bill by saying that the coinage of seigniorage would add to the revenues of the government and therefore belonged properly in a revenue measure.

The President's objections to the bill, in brief, are that it is loosely drawn and would rob us of our gold. He says he believes the coinage of the bullion seigniorage might be safely and advantageously done provided authority were given the secretary of the treasury to issue bonds at a low rate of interest. He expresses a hope for a comprehensive adjustment of our monetary affairs in a short time in a way to accord to silver its proper place in our currency.

The veto message reached the house at 12:21 in the midst of a roll call, which was suspended long enough to permit the President's secretary to perform his errand. After that the members on both sides of the house gathered in groups for conversation so that at times the clerk's voice could scarcely be heard above the din. The speaker was so eager to learn the contents of the message that he tore open the envelope at once and buried himself in its contents. Meanwhile printed copies had been circulated in the press gallery and the few surplus copies which remained undistributed were eagerly sought by democratic members.

The filibustering tactics of the last few days were continued and the presentation of the message was further deferred by rollcalls. Meanwhile the message had been generally read and digested on the democratic side and members had exchanged views. The sentiment among the sound money men at the first consideration was that it was strongest in the earlier paragraphs. The only criticism was on the closing suggestion about the practicability of coining the seigniorage in connection with the issue of low-rate bonds. The arguments against this were that it would be like putting poison and antidote into the same vessel. They would neutralize each other's effects. The coinage of the seigniorage would, it was claimed, depress the market for the bonds, while the only purpose for which the bonds would need to be issued would be the avoidance of any more silver legislation.

In his message the President says: "The financial disturbance which swept over the country during the last year was unparalleled in its severity and disastrous consequences. There seemed to be almost an entire displacement of faith in our financial ability and a loss of confidence in our fiscal policy. Among those who attempted to assign causes for our distress it was generally conceded that the operation of a provision of law then in force which required the government to purchase monthly a large amount of silver bullion and issue its notes in payment thereof was either entirely or to a large extent responsible for our condition. This led to the repeal on the 1st day of November, 1893, of this statutory provision. We had, however, fallen so low in the depths of depression and timidity and apprehension had so completely gained control in financial circles that our rapid recuperation could not be reasonably expected. Our recovery has, nevertheless, steadily progressed, and though less than five months have elapsed since the repeal of the mischievous silver-purchase requirement, a wholesome improvement is unmistakably apparent. Confidence in our absolute solvency is to such an extent reinstated and faith in our disposition to adhere to sound financial methods is so far restored as to produce the most encouraging results both at home and abroad."

"I believe that if the bill under consideration should become a law it would be regarded as a retrogression from the financial intentions indulged by our recent repeal of the provision forcing silver bullion purchases; that it would weaken, if it did not destroy, returning faith and confidence in our sound financial tendencies, and that as a consequence our progress to renewed business health would be unfortunately checked and a return to our recent distressing plight seriously threatened. "Considering the present intrinsic relation between gold and silver the maintenance of the parity between the two metals, as mentioned in this law, can mean nothing less than the maintenance of such a parity in the estimation and confidence of the people who use our money in their daily transactions. Manifestly, the maintenance of this parity can only be accomplished, so far as it is affected by these treasury notes and in the estimation of the holders of the same, by giving to such holders on their redemption the coin, whether it is gold or silver, which they prefer. It follows that while in terms the law leaves the choice of coin to be paid on such redemption to the discretion of the secretary of the treasury, the exercise of this discretion, if opposed to the demands of the holder, is entirely inconsistent with the effective and beneficial maintenance of the parity between the two metals."

"If both gold and silver are to serve as money, and if they together are to our people a safe and stable currency, the necessity of preserving this parity is obvious. Such necessity has been repeatedly conceded in the platforms of both political parties and in our federal statutes. It is nowhere more emphatically recognized than in the recent law which repealed the provision under which the bullion now on hand was purchased. The law insists upon the 'maintenance of the parity in value of the coins of the two metals and the equal power at all times in the markets and in the payment of debts.'"

"The secretary of the treasury has, therefore, for the best of reasons not only complied with every demand for the redemption of these treasury notes in gold, but the present situation, as well as the letter and spirit of the law, appear plainly to justify, if they do not enjoin upon him, a continuation of such redemption. "The entire bill is most unfortunately constructed. Nearly every sentence presents uncertainty and invites controversy as to its meaning and intent. The first section is especially faulty in this respect and it is extremely doubtful whether its language will permit the consummation of its supposed purposes. I am led to believe that the promoters of the bill intended in this section to provide for the coinage of the bullion constituting the gain or seigniorage, as it is called, into standard silver dollars, and yet there is positively nothing in the section to prevent its coinage into any description of silver coins now authorized under any existing law. I suppose this section was also intended, in case the needs of the treasury call for money faster than the seigniorage bullion could actually be coined, to permit the issue of silver certificates in advance of any coinage; but its language would seem to permit the issuance of such certificates to double the amount of the seigniorage, as stated, one-half of which would not represent an ounce of silver in the treasury. The debate upon this section in the congress developed an earnest and positive difference of opinion as to its object and meaning. In any event I am clear that the present perplexities and embarrassments of the secretary of the treasury ought not to be augmented by devolving upon him the execution of a law so uncertain and confused."

"I wish to earnestly present the desirability of granting to the secretary of the treasury a better power than now exists to issue bonds to protect our gold reserve when for any reason it should be necessary. Our currency is in such a confused condition and our financial affairs are apt to assume at any time so critical a position that it seems to me such a course is dictated by ordinary prudence. I am not insensible to the arguments in favor of coining the bullion seigniorage now in the treasury, and I believe it could be done safely and with advantage if the secretary of the treasury had the power to issue bonds at a low rate of interest under authority in substitution of that now existing and better suited to the protection of the treasury."

"I hope a way will present itself in the near future for the adjustment of our monetary affairs in such a comprehensive and conservative manner as will afford to silver its proper place in our currency, but in the meantime I am extremely solicitous that whatever action we take on this subject may be such as to prevent loss and discouragement to our people at home and the destruction of confidence in our financial management abroad."

Bland Makes His Statement. Representative Bland, author of the bill, authorized the following statement concerning the veto and its effect upon the future of silver:

"The main point of the veto is that the President does not wish to infuse into the currency any more silver until he has more bonds and a greater gold reserve. The first section of the bill provides for the coinage of the bullion held under the Sherman act. That act provides that the bullion shall be coined into standard silver dollars. The Sherman act is not repealed, and hence the President's observation that it is not clear into what kinds of coins the bullion shall be struck is not lawyerlike, as a

QUEER BEASTS ROAM
UP IN EVANSVILLE.PIGS THAT ARE BLIND AND TIGERS THAT ARE HIDDEN.

Rum Runs Rampant In Hidden Hades Holes While Suckers Are Stripped of Their Raiment and Plunged Into Boiling Jack Pots—Armed Men Stand Guard.

EVANSVILLE, March 30.—Evansville having been the home and winter quarters for Col. Hall's circus so long it is not strange that wild and ferocious animals still exist within our midst. "Sightless shoats" and "terrible tigers" still abide in secluded places and rum is rampant therein, while poker players plunge into boiling jack pots all unobserved and only the "suckers" are stripped of their raiment for the operation. These animals can be seen, so rumor says, only by the elect, as two armed guards bar the passage and the person who enters must have the pass word, or "have a friend who has it for him. Just what the open sesame is the uninitiated can't tell, and the initiated won't. Perhaps the word is "jag" that would be short, and suggestive of the applicants future state, or if there be two guards, then "Jacks up" might be better, then they could syllable it with the brethren. Bert Morgan and wife welcome the arrival of a daughter. Reuben Johnson is still dangerously ill. Charles Hollister and family of Chicago visited relatives here this week. Mrs. George Dell and two children are sick with scarlet fever. Thomas Street while unloading a car in the yards here, was severely injured by being thrown against the end of the car, caused by the bumping of another car against the one he was in. The probable result is a suit for damages. Mrs. J. A. Fisher, of Oregon, Wis., is a guest at M. J. Fisher's. The Redmond theatrical troupe are giving first class entertainments here. The only poor thing is the size of the houses they get.

BRECKINRIDGE TESTIFIES.

The Defendant Takes the Stand in His Own Behalf.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The Pollard-Breckinridge trial began yesterday with a request from plaintiff's attorney that they be permitted to introduce two witnesses whose private business demanded their attention at home. The request was agreed to and John Benckhart of Lexington, Ky., was called. His testimony was to the effect that the locality in which "Lena Singleton" is said to have lived was a most unsavory one.

The second witness was a tall, be-whiskered colored man, Stephen Dunn by name, who deals in furniture and lives at 162 North Upper street, between Third and Fourth, in Lexington. He gave the same line of testimony regarding the people who had dwelt in the vicinity since 1879, when he moved there. He was confident that Lena Singleton had never lived there; if she had that he would have known it.

The deposition of Mrs. William J. Miller of Memphis, Tenn., who claimed that she and Miss Pollard had been inmates of Lena Singleton's establishment in Lexington, occupied the court until after the recess.

Mr. Butterworth arose and said: "Col. Breckinridge, will you take the stand?" and the commotion which ensued required all the efforts of the bailiff to quiet the noise.

Col. Breckinridge declared that he was born near Baltimore in 1837, that his father, John C. Breckinridge, soon afterward moved to Jefferson, Pa., to accept the presidency of the college, and in 1847 to Lexington to take the pastorate of the Presbyterian church. He had taken his diploma at Center college. He had practiced law only at Lexington after studying in the office of Madison C. Johnson, and in Louisville at the law school, a diploma from which was a license to practice. He told of his marriages and of his first meeting with the plaintiff and identified the letters that had been offered in evidence.

Returning to his visit to the Wesleyan seminary, the defendant explained that it had been made while on a business trip to Covington, Friday, Aug. 1. There being no hotel accommodations in Covington, he had gone to Cincinnati to stay over night. After dinner, remembering the letter of Miss Pollard, he strolled up to the college. He said that during his visit Miss Pollard confessed to him that she had given herself to Mr. Rhodes, and he advised that she should marry him (Rhodes). Miss Pollard then said she was not willing, that she loved the defendant better. That evening they took a carriage ride together and during the ride the following incident occurred:

"After we had driven some distance," he said, "she took off her hat and put it on the front seat. I put my arm around her. There were no protestations on my part. No offer of love. What occurred occurred in the natural way. I put my arm around her and drew her to me. There was no outcry by her, no resistance."

Then he told of giving the woman a present, forcing her to take it. "Adjourn the court," shouted Judge Bradley, who had sat through the narrative with his head averted and eyes closed, and the court adjourned.

REIGN OF TERROR
SWEEPS SAMOA.BATTLE WAS VERY DIS-
TROUS TO BOTH SIDES.

The Rebels and the Government Forces Both Lose Heavily In the Engagement—The Powers Are Helpless Until the Arrival of a Man of War—Trouble at Bluefield.

AUCKLAND, March 30.—[Special]—A reign of terror is on in Samoa. In a battle thirty rebels were killed and fifty were wounded while many were taken prisoners. Of the government troops a dozen were killed and many wounded. The powers are helpless until they get a man of war.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 30.—Advices from Bluefields, Nicaragua, by the steamer Bergensen, are that the match has finally been applied to the powder magazine in the Mosquito reservation, figuratively speaking, and unless an American warship reaches the scene shortly the interests of this country will suffer. March 23 news was received from Rama to the effect that William Wilson, an American, was shot by the governor of Rama the previous night without any justification therefor. Wilson died at 8 o'clock last Friday. The governor, a Nicaraguan by the name of A. Guilla, who is a nephew of Lacayo, the commissioner, refused to let a boat leave Rama with Wilson, who might have been saved if brought to Bluefields for treatment. Great excitement prevails at Bluefields. One shot fired there would cause the death of every Nicaraguan in Bluefields. The arrival of an American warship is anxiously awaited.

COXEY'S MEN MARCHING IN SNOW.
Recruits are Still Joining the Army and Supplies Coming In.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 30.—If persistent endurance counts for anything Coxeys' "Army of the Commonweal" will get to Washington all right. Nearly a hundred men of the commonweal tramped through a driving snow storm to Columbiana yesterday, facing the worst weather yet experienced. The other half of the army took freight trains for Columbiana rather than meet the storm. Salem proved to be a better town for the army than it expected. An oversupply of provisions was contributed. At Columbiana the townspeople had gathered enough provisions to fill two big store rooms. The commissary wagons could not hold all the supplies, and a carload will be sent ahead. This is the sort of hospitality and support the people of eastern Ohio are giving the Coxeys army. Money comes in but slowly. Recruits are coming in steadily.

For the last two days the army has fared well. It has slept in warm quarters and had plenty to eat. One hundred and seventy men answered the bugle at reveille yesterday, but only eight-eight marched. This thing is bothering the leaders, and they are planning to check those who prefer freight trains to marching.

At Leetonia the townspeople had contributed enough to provide every one of Coxeys' men with two big ham sandwiches and half a pint of hot coffee. At Columbiana enthusiasm has taken the shape of practical work and the largest amount of provisions the army has got was given to it in Columbiana. One entire cooked beef, eight sacks of flour, twenty sacks of potatoes, and seventy bushels of oats were some of the principal contributions received. At the lower end of town the army was unexpectedly joined by Gen. Coxeys himself, who had just left the Fort Wayne train. He was greeted with a cheer. To-day the army will march to East Palestine and pitch its tent at Camp Gompers.

A supply depot has been established at Columbiana, Ohio. Among the supplies sent there for the army are forty-three hams, 2,000 pounds of flour, with an abundance of hay, oats, and provender of all kinds. The staid old farmers, who believe Coxeys will secure them better roads, are stirred up and expect great results from the movement.

MINERS BOUND EAST.

They Are Stalwart Missourians and Are Paying Their Way.

RICHMOND, Ind., March 30.—There were in this city yesterday twenty-three recruits for Coxeys' army in command of Major J. B. Cole of Baxter Springs, Kan. The recruits had been lead and zinc miners at Joplin, Mo., and Empire City and are stalwart-looking men. They are only a part of 300 volunteers from southern Missouri and northern Arkansas, all of whom are now en route by various lines to join the industrial army. They had been raising money for weeks to pay their way, and finally secured enough to take them all through.

DE SOTO, Mo., March 30.—Coxey's army has a detachment in camp here. They arrived last night 150 strong and will leave to-day to join the main army. They are an orderly crowd.

GOV. HOGG MEANS BUSINESS.

Says Railway Must Remove the "Army" Tramps at Once.

HOUSTON, Texas, March 30.—Gov. Hogg has written to General Manager Kruttschnitt of the Galveston, Harrisburg & San Antonio railway that immediate steps will be taken to punish the company officials if the 700 tramps brought into Texas by the road are not taken out at once.

DEETERS IS FOUND GUILTY

Sentenced at Angola Ind., for a Double Murder.

WATERLOO, Ind., March 30.—Samuel Deeters was found guilty yesterday of murder in the first degree. He was sentenced to life imprisonment. He killed Amos Bachtel and Bachtel's daughter, Mrs. Laura Lowe, Aug. 31. The defense was insanity. The people throughout this section have watched the trial with anxiety, and Deeters is being watched closely and caution will be taken to keep him from mob violence before he is taken to Michigan City penitentiary.

MAIL CLERK ARRESTED FOR THEFT.

Said to Have Taken Thousands of Dollars from Registered Letters.

WINONA, Minn., March 30.—Lee A. Smith, a railway postal clerk on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, was arrested for stealing the contents of registered letters passing through his hands. His run was between Winona and Elroy, Wis., and for several months packages have been found opened that were transferred from his route. This arrest possibly clears a mystery in the La Crosse, Wis., post-office. Prior to his present run Smith was transfer clerk at La Crosse and while he was engaged in that capacity seventy cases of robbery of registered letters, involving an aggregate of about $2,000, took place. Suspicion is strong, though he denies his connection in these cases. He was placed under $5,000 bond and in default was committed to the county jail.

Freight Car Thieves Arrested.

KOKOMO, Ind., March 30.—The Kokomo police made an important capture here by rounding up a gang of twenty freight car thieves and recovering many thousand dollars worth of merchandise. The thefts had become so notorious that wholesale merchants refused to ship over roads running through this city and road detectives have worked for many weeks to unearth the robbers.

Fatally Shot by an Officer.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 30.—George Yaeger, alias Clifton, alias Clifford, a young man to whom the police give a bad reputation, was shot and fatally wounded by Detective Pat King last night at 11 o'clock, while he and John Dennison were in the act of burglarizing the home of J. O. Chenoweth.

LABOR RECOGNIZED BY LAW.

Union Pacific Wage Question to Be Decided in Court.

OMAHA, Neb., March 30.—General Solicitor Thurston of the Union Pacific yesterday proposed to the employees that they refer the wage question to a commissioner instead of trying it in court. Grand Chiefs Arthur, Clark, Sargent, and Wilkinson and their attorneys expressed themselves as not favorable to this plan. The grand chiefs say that they want first to have certain principles of law laid down. The principal questions which they wish passed upon are the status of labor organizations, the question of constructive mileage, especially on the mountain divisions, and the stability of rules and regulations governing employment. Judge Caldwell decided that as long as the matter had been taken to the court it might as well be settled there. This is the first time that labor has been recognized by law.

Arm to Resist Law.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 30.—The people of Darlington have risen in arms against the officers of the law and in case an attempt is made by the state dispensary spies to raid and search their dwellings there is sure to be a serious revolt accompanied by bloodshed. Yesterday the spies, now operating there, raided some eight places of business. The announcement was made by some one that spies intended to raid many private dwellings. The people at once came with guns and other arms and formed themselves into a mob, declaring they would kill the first man who made any such attempt.

Sacramento Still the Capital.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—The Supreme court holds that the act of the last legislature in removing the capital from Sacramento to San Jose was illegal. The act delegated the power to the governor, attorney-general and secretary of state. The decision holds this act is inoperative, declaring the power of removal rests alone with the people.

Hundred Bullets in a Murderer.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 30.—Olive Jackson, one of the Grant murderers, was taken to the lower part of the county yesterday. A dozen masked men took the prisoner from two deputies. The deputies afterward found the prisoner dead with a hundred bullet holes through him. Jackson was the negro who had been hired to kill Mr. Grant, but was late in meeting the conspirators, and the latter did the deed. Jackson had committed three murders.

Texas Swept by a Severe Blizzard.

DALLAS, Texas, March 30.—For the third time the thermometer was 4 degrees below the freezing point yesterday. Ice was half an inch thick. The little life left by the cold of Sunday and Monday in all perishable fruits was frozen out. Loss will be millions.

Against the Gulf Road.

OMAHA, Neb., March 30.—Judges Caldwell and Sanborn of the United States Circuit court have decided the famous Union Pacific-Gulf case against the Gulf road.

BIG BREAKERS BURN
AT ASHLAND, PA.PARK COLLEGE LOSES $150,000
BY FIRE THIS MORNING.

Seven Hundred Men Are Thrown Out of Employment By the Blaze—Williamsport Swept By Flames and a Big Factory and Many Dwellings Are Destroyed.

ASHLAND, Pa., March 30.—(Special) Seven hundred men were thrown out of employment by a fire that destroyed the breaker of the Park college this morning. The loss will be at least $150,000.

WILLIAMSPORT, March 30.—(Special) Leppert's furniture factory and seven dwellings burned this morning entailing a loss of $50,000.

REED AND CRISP MEET.

Differences on Rules Cause Exciting Scenes in the House.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—An interpretation of the rules which brought forth remarks from Mr. Reed and Mr. Crisp led to an exciting scene yesterday in the house. After the reception of the President's message a vote on the pending motion, the Joy-O'Neill contested election case was had, and resulted 154 to 11, fourteen short of a quorum. Of the eleven who voted against the motion (in effect against giving O'Neill the seat) ten were democrats. Mr. McKeighan (pop., Neb.) cast the other negative vote.

Then came more filibustering, and Mr. Patterson offered a resolution to revoke the leave of absence and instruct the sergeant-at-arms to take the absentees into custody. Mr. Reed attempted to make the point that a quorum was necessary to adopt a resolution continuing an order in force beyond adjournment, but the speaker overruled him. The previous question was ordered—162 to 2.

Mr. Reed took the floor and in a brief speech scored the democratic side, dwelling particularly upon the absurdity of the proceeding which aimed at procuring a quorum by duress and after one was secured left the house powerless to record its presence.

Speaker Crisp, who was on the floor at the time, took exception to the remarks of Mr. Reed and a lively controversy between the two gentlemen took place. Many other members joined the discussion and the scene very nearly approached disorder. Finally the speaker ordered the vote taken on the question and appointed as tellers Mr. Patterson (dem., Tenn.) and Mr. Payne. Mr. Payne declined to serve.

"The chair then appoints the gentleman from Maine," said the speaker. Mr. Reed also declined to serve.

"The gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. Patterson) will act alone." The democrats raised a cheer as the speaker said this, and moved rapidly past him in single file to be counted.

When a sufficient number had been counted by Mr. Patterson to order the ayes and noes the announcement was made. The republicans protested against this irregularity and Mr. Reed declared that the chair knew the rules required two tellers.

"The house understands the circumstances," replied Speaker Crisp firmly. "The chair takes all the consequences."

Mr. Payne was still talking loudly in the aisle as the clerk began calling the roll. He was ordered to take his seat and replied that he would do so when he got ready. The speaker met this retort by declaring that he was ready to entertain a motion to bring the gentleman to the bar of the house for contumacy.

Mr. Outwaite and Mr. Boutelle, in the general confusion that followed, were engaged in a wordy duel, and Mr. Outwaite threatened to move that Mr. Boutelle be called to the bar for contempt. The speaker decided that such proceedings could not interrupt a roll call, but upon its completion they were not renewed. The resolution was adopted—164 to 3. The house adjourned.

FOR A GREAT BATTLE.

Senatorial Orators Preparing for Close of the Tariff Contest.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Senators on both sides of the chamber are marshaling their forces for the tariff debate which is to be begun Monday next. Senator Voorhees will open the discussion defining the democratic party's position on the question as viewed by the majority of the committee. He will be followed by Senator Allison, on behalf of the republican members. Beyond this nothing is known as to the order of speeches on either side. Senator Hill is expected to speak in opposition to the income tax feature of the bill next week.

Senator McPherson will probably follow Senator Voorhees on the democratic side, but this is not definitely determined. The republicans will not move to recommit the bill.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—In the senate yesterday Senator Gorman, in behalf of Senator Brice, reported the pension appropriation bill. The house joint resolution appropriating $10,000 additional to carry out the provisions of the Chinese exclusion act was passed.

Dickering for Votes.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., March 30.—When the 435th ballot was taken in the judicial convention before adjournment last night the result was the same as on the second ballot yesterday.

BOY FOUGHT DEATH IN THE ICY CREEK.

RAY BROWN'S NARROW ESCAPE AT SHOPIERE.

Ice Broke and Let Him Through But He Kept His Head and by Swimming and Opening a Passage Ahead of Him Finally Reached Shore—County Gossip.

SHOPIERE, March 29.—Presence of mind enabled Ray Brown to save himself when death seemed to have him surely in his clutches Tuesday morning and the troublesome waters of Turtle Creek were cheated of their prey. Young Brown was skating on the mill pond and fell into an air hole. The opening was about half way across the pond and therefore some distance from shore. Six feet of water flowed under the gaping opening and in an instant Brown was submerged. He didn't lose his head, but breaking the ice in front of him he swam to the shore. While he had both the fun of winter and summer sport the same day it was too dangerous to be enjoyable. One of our young ladies while talking with a friend at Theodore Weirick's rooms over the store, picked up his revolver, not supposing that it was loaded. It soon discharged, but the bullet simply tore a hole in the ceiling. A tin wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brannard on Monday evening, March 26. The affair was a surprise to them and a pleasant time resulted. The spring term of our school will commence on Monday, April 2. There seems to be a difference in the opinions of fruit growers in this section. Some think that the trees were not advanced enough to be injured during this last cold snap. Others think that there will be no fruit this year. The Joseph Vought house has been rented to a family from Watertown who will move in soon. After twenty-seven hours' sickness and at the ripe age of eighty-two years, Thomas Atkinson, died at the home of his son, James Atkinson, of this place, Saturday, March 24, 1894. And on Monday, March 26, funeral services were held at the house. Rev. Mr. Moses officiated, after which the remains were taken to Atton for burial. Mr. Atkinson was born in Lincolnshire, Eng., in 1812, where he lived until 1891, his wife having died two years before, and he living alone, and feeling lonesome accepted the invitation of his son, he being in his eightieth year, emigrated to this country to seek a home with him where he has resided since. He was a man who was seldom sick and had a very cheerful disposition. He was a great friend of the children, and was always happy when in their company. He was a believer in the church of England and although not a member of any church his latter days have been spent in trying to live as nearly right as possible.

TIME CARD CHANGES AT AFTON.

Chicago & Northwestern To Alter the Passenger Schedule—Other Current Events.

AFTON, March 28.—A new time card will be issued by the Chicago & Northwestern Railway Sunday, and important changes are promised, especially in the running of passenger trains. Afton school will reopen Monday, with Teacher Starr in command. The Baptist Sunday school will convene next Sunday morning at 11:30, there being no other morning service. Y. P. S. C. E. in the evening as usual. The annual town meeting will be held at Lawton Hall this year. Thus far local politics have not created much stir or discussion with members of either party. Our town clerk, Fred Kethel-hohn, took a trip over to Eagle last week, and when he returned home on Monday, was accompanied by his wife, having been married Sunday to Miss Anna Thurloff, of that place. They will make their home in this village. Fred L. Benich, one of the publishers of the new Beloit German weekly, the Deutsche Zeitung, was here Tuesday looking after the interests of his paper. Afton people gathered at the Baptist church last Wednesday evening to listen to the Demorest Medal contest, but as Mr. Titus, manager of the affair, failed to appear, the speaking did not take place. Fred A. Vankirk, who has achieved popularity as "our groceryman," was down on business Wednesday. Matthias Waggoner and wife express their thanks to those who assisted in the erection of their dwelling. Albert W. Stark and wife attended the Pahl-Quad nuptials at Hanover last Monday.

MANY MOVING IN PORTER.

Home Changing the Current Excitement—Crop of Leaf Sold.

PORTER, March 29.—The current excitement in this neighborhood is the number of people who are moving. It has been many years since this town has had as many changes in this respect. Among the people who are making changes are Dick Casey, who will reside in Janesville, and Fred Stewart of Fulton who will work the Dennis McCarthy farm. F. Fesenden delivered his tobacco in the bundle to an Evansville firm. A number of young people were disappointed on account of the bad roads last Saturday night as they intended to see Richard Mansfield at Myers Opera House, Janesville. Mrs. Bragg of Stevensville spent last Saturday here. Hargraves & Phifer of Edgerton will build the Eagle creamery. Daniel Downey of Minn sota, spent a week here visiting friends. Miss Mary Collins of Janesville spent Easter with her parents here. Bert Montgomery and bride are now comfortably located on the Will Nichols farm where they are "at home" to their many friends. Miss Mary Hayes visited with relatives in Janesville a few days last week. Miss Minnie Hayward, of Evansville, has been engaged for the spring term commencing April 9th. A wedding is predicted here soon. James Murphy delivered one of his horses in Ft. Atkinson last Saturday returning home on Sunday. Mrs. N. A. Pound and daughter Clara and Eva are spending the week with the former's sister Mrs. Will Bradley in the town of Fulton.

BUSINESS CHANGE AT MILTON.

R. Williams Retires After Thirty Years Work—News of the College Town.

MILTON, March 30.—R. Williams has decided to retire from the mercantile business. He has been in business here for thirty-three years, and at his age feels that he has earned a rest. His stock will be bought by F. C. Dunn and G. R. Ross, and on after May 1, the new firm will be in possession of the large double store, now occupied by Williams & Dunn, with the largest and most complete stock of general merchandise and clothing ever seen in this place. The new firm are both popular and full of enterprise and cannot fail to succeed. Miss Grace Spaulding, who has been attending Appleton University, is at home. Damon Fuller, of Edgerton, was in the village Tuesday. D. Y. Berkalew, has bought the old house and lot owned by W. H. Weaver, on Madison avenue. We understand that he sold half the lot to O. D. Crumb and will remove the old house from the remainder and build himself a new dwelling thereon sometime in the future. An oratorical contest, in which men only are allowed to compete, will take place at the M. E. Church Tuesday evening. Good music will be furnished. Thomas Harris, the shoemaker, carries a new watch that he found in a package of smoking tobacco. E. S. Babcock has finished a new punch and shear machine that beats "em all." Call and see it work if you are interested. Dr. Ella Crandall has bought the house now occupied by D. Y. Berkalew, on Madison avenue, and will take possession in a few days. The morning temperature on Monday and Tuesday was 8 and 12 above zero. This is the lowest marking on those dates since 1887. Ed. Greene is back from California and is stopping with his mother, Mrs. M. W. Greene. G. R. Fetherston has a new illuminated wagon from which he will sell groceries to his country customers. Henry James, of Spencer, Iowa, is the guest of H. H. Waterman this week. Prof. Edwin Shaw who is taking a special course in the university of Chicago, is enjoying his vacation with Milton relatives. Whitford and Osborn were out with their snow plows Wednesday and did good work. Hope the won't have any further use for them this season. Rev. E. M. Dunn is in Nebraska on a two weeks' trip. Prof. N. Wardner Williams, of the University of Chicago, made his Milton friends a brief visit Tuesday. Dr. Woodruff, of Grand Rapids, Mich., was here Tuesday shaking hands with his comrades of the Thirtieth regiment, some of whom he had not met before since the close of the war. The Cemetery association will hold its annual meeting at the office of Superintendent E. P. Clarke on Monday evening. Prof. Crandall's son and daughter have recovered from scarlet fever, and no other cases have developed in the village.

WESTERN COWS AT SOUTH CLINTON

Four Carloads Have Been Sold Up to Date—Real Estate Valuable.

SOUTH CLINTON, March 30.—William Williams and Mr. Hoffman recently brought down from Douglas county, Minnesota, two carloads of milch cows which were sold last Thursday at auction on one of Halvor Peterson's farms near the state line. This makes four carloads of western cattle that have been disposed of in this neighborhood since last fall. South Clinton real estate is good property, judging by the price paid for the Luell place just opposite the Nora creamery. This place, which consists of about three and one-half acres, with buildings on it not worth over $150, was recently purchased by Knute Seavers for a little more than eight hundred dollars. Considerable tobacco will be planted here this season in spite of the present poor prices. Will Jacobson has returned from his visit in Iowa. Ed. Engender of Fargo, North Dakota, made South Clinton a short visit last week. Henry Anderson was home over Sunday. C. O. Solberg at present a theological student at Chicago spent part of his spring vacation here. Beloit students from South Clinton are all enjoying their spring vacation at home as is also Lewis Jacobson of Madison University.

Persons from Fairfield.

FAIRFIELD, March 29.—Theron Cutter has gone north for another carload of cows. A. J. Waterman is running his feed mill night and day. Ada More resumes her studies at Milton next week. Mrs. James Gregory returned to her Iowa home last week. Mrs. Mary Cutter is visiting friends in the central part of the state. Miss Bertha Clark spent last week with friends at Delavan. The Easter concert rendered by the Sunday school, passed off nicely. Grant Wilkins returned from Dakota last week, and will make this place his future home. I. W. Smith is quite sick; threatened with pneumonia. E. G. Chesebro's condition remains unchanged, except daily growing weaker.

SECRET CIRCULAR CAN'T DEFEAT HIM.

JUDGE BENNETT RECEIVES WARM ENDORSEMENT.

His Record on the Bench Shows For Itself and Makes Underhanded Attacks Futile—Figures From the Courts of Three Counties Tell of His Efficiency.

For the first time in the history of this judicial circuit, secret circulars have been distributed by the over zealous supporters of Wm. Smith to influence the people against Judge Bennett. The first batch that was issued contained such glaring mis-statements that a second more plausible one was sent out by the same parties.

If the writer of the secret circular wanted to be so fair, why did he give the county fees of the then Clerk of the Court Baldwin in 1882, the year of Judge Conger's sickness and death, when court held only half the usual time; and then compare them with the clerk's fees in 1893, when everybody knows there was over three times as much business in 1893 as in 1881 or 1882.

Another monstrous mis-statement in the secret circular: "It costs Rock county alone over $16,000 a year to run our circuit court."

They have included in this $16,000 for 1893 the following expenses of the municipal court and justice's courts:

Municipal court jurors.....	$ 268 88
Municipal court witnesses.....	174 65
Municipal court reporter.....	361 65
8 civil and deputies.....	42 31
Justices, constables and marshals.....	2,835 67
Witnesses in justice's courts.....	754 33
Change of venue cases.....	656 52
Total.....	$5,941 04

Reducing the above $16,000 to $10,595.66 for 1893. In this $10,595.66 is included the entire cost of the long Whalen murder trial from Portage, paid by Columbia county, amounting to $2,700.54 in 1893. Deduct that and it reduces the total cost of the circuit court of Rock county for 1893 to $7,895.12.

Why does the secret circular state it is $16,000, except to deceive the voters?

The records of the court show that more than one-half of the civil cases have been tried by Judge Bennett, without a jury, thereby saving thousands of dollars by doing away with expensive jury trials.

Another shocking mis-statement in the secret circular is as follows: "Paid to attorneys supporting Bennett, for defending criminals, Bennett judge, in 1893, $1,817.50."

In this sum they have included $260 paid to William Smith and others for defending criminals in the municipal court, also $540 paid to J. L. Mahoney, of Portage, for defending murderer Whalen, which sum came out of Columbia county. Also $300 attorneys fees paid to the county as a part of the costs in the Cheever case. This leaves only $717 coming out of Rock county of this sum of $1,817.50 in 1893.

Every intelligent voter knows that all the court expenses are critically examined each year by the board of supervisors, who would instantly detect anything wrong.

The secret circular further contains the insinuation that Judge Bennett might favor railroad corporations. Nearly $100,000 in verdicts have been rendered before him in Rock, Green and Jefferson counties, against railroad corporations. In Heddies against the Northwestern R. R. Co., where a small boy had both legs cut off by a locomotive, a Rock county jury gave the boy a verdict of $30,000. On the case coming up for re-trial, the company took the case to Walworth county, swearing that Judge Bennett was prejudiced against the company.

This secret circular attempts to pick out some fifty odd cases, tried by Judge Bennett, which it is claimed were reversed in the Supreme Court. The list is wrong. Even if it were correct it would be only about two per cent. of the thousands of cases tried and disposed of by Judge Bennett in the last twelve years.

There is in this list, the State vs. Lee, which was reversed on appeal from the Municipal Court of Rock county. It was for an assault on a young girl at Beloit. The case was then tried before Judge Bennett, and the defendant sent to State prison. He was pardoned out by the Governor, and that is how Judge Bennett was reversed.

Judge Bennett's age has been brought in against him. Everybody knows he is in perfect mental and physical condition. Ask the jurors in all the counties, who have seen him work about eight hours a day during the terms of court during these years. Ask the attorneys who have business before him. With a few exceptions, all the attorneys in active practice in Rock, Green and Jefferson counties, and thousands of business men and farmers have signed his nomination papers. Don't these men know how well fitted he is for the high office of Circuit Judge?

We need only point to Judge Bennett's record in the last twelve years as Circuit Judge. No man has ever dared to question his integrity and judicial learning. He has had but one criminal case reversed in all that time. No murderers, like Mrs. Mack, have escaped on technicalities. He has put a wholesome check on these crimes.

Remember this. That every honest Judge will have some enemies who will work against him.

Several years ago Judge Bennett presided in Milwaukee on the trial of ex-Judge Small, when he was tried on disbarment proceedings. The decision which Judge Bennett rendered in that case, wherein he laid down the highest principals of professional honor, while at the same time he tempered justice with mercy, won for him the encomiums of the brilliant Milwaukee bar. We speak of this to show that his learning and ability as a Judge is co-extensive with the State of Wisconsin.

The voters of Rock, Green and Jefferson counties are a fair minded people, and they know that neither Judge Bennett, nor any one in his behalf, has asked any man for his support, on party grounds. He has been a non-partizan candidate in letter and in spirit, during this entire campaign. The people also know full well, what the secret circular supporters of Mr. William Smith have done in that regard.

Her Best Part Is that of the Empress Josephine.

Rhea will be seen at the Myers to-night in one of her best parts "Josephine, Empress of the French." Her company includes several charming actresses, who possess good looks in addition to histrionic ability. Besides these the company is strong in men, who are for the most part actors of fine soldierly appearance. The leading man, W. S. Hart, is well known for his masterly performance of "Napoleon," a character that would tax to their limit the resources of many a recognized star. Mr. Hart has made a close study of the character and never for a minute forgets the physical and mental peculiarities of the great "Napoleon."

INTO FOUR MUZZLES THE DEPUTY LOOKED

SHOT GUN AND RIFLES MEET AN OFFICER.

James McCullough Stands Behind the Door of His Town of Plymouth Home With an Arsenal—He Refuses to be Ousted at Owner Campbell's Request.

There is war on the Campbell farm, in the town of Plymouth, near Footville. James McCullough is a tenant and efforts have been made by the proprietor to remove him and regain possession of his lands. Frequent suits have been brought in justice's courts, and these culminated in an attempt to remove McCullough by force. Deputy Sheriff Gifford with a posse went to the farm, and at first met no resistance. He had removed some household goods to the roadway when McCullough locked the door, remaining inside with members of his family and hired help. Sheriff Gifford and Mr. Campbell knocked the door from its hinges but as the door went down Gifford found himself covered with a double barrel shot gun, a rifle and a bull-dog revolver.

"You will not shoot me," he exclaimed.

"I propose to defend my property," replied the tenant.

The officer realized that the man was determined, and a retreat was made to the highway where a consultation was held, resulting in the dispersal of the posse and leaving McCullough in possession of the farm. One report says that McCullough has a three years lease of the farm; that he has only held possession two years, and that the excuse given for the attempt to remove him is that the farm has been sold, Campbell desiring to turn it over to the purchaser.

SPRING VALLEY POLITICS LIVELY

It Is License or No License In The Township Election.

Old party lines have been wiped out this spring in Spring Valley and the campaign has been opened on the license or no license plan. The temperance people held their caucus on Thursday and placed a full ticket in the field and claim that it will be elected by a large majority. Mr. Egan, the nominee for chairman, claims that if the temperance people are victorious at the polls he will destroy every "blind pig" in Orfordville in short order, and friends of the ticket say that public sentiment in that vicinity will sustain him. The temperance ticket is as follows:

Supervisors—J. E. Egan, chairman; Thomas Thorson, Andrew Guul, Clerk—S. Dayton. Treasurer—George Pankhurst. Assessor—L. N. Bowles. Justices—T. O. Brown, W. W. Meehan. Constables—Wesley Jones, Guernsey H. Condon, Charles Lawton, Joseph Fuller.

A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. The voter will make a (X) cross in the square at the right and opposite the name of the candidate he wishes to vote for. If he wishes to vote for a person for a certain office, whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name in the blank space under the printed name of the candidate for the office and make a (X) cross in the square at the right on it. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen but so that the printed endorsement and signatures of the ballot clerks on outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot can have the assistance of one or two election officers in marking same to be chosen by the voter. The presiding officer may administer an oath, in his discretion as to such person's disability. The party designations and candidates for the different offices are as follows:

A BLOW IN THE DARK.

Before being influenced by the anonymous circular that is being thrown broadcast through this judicial circuit in the interest of Mr. Smith, which circular is said to have emanated from Mr. Smith's office, will the voters just stop for one moment and think whether this form of electioneering is fair and honorable?

Does any fair-minded man want to encourage this anonymous circular method of attack? Is it the interests of the people which are sought to be promoted, or the selfish interest of the candidate? Why is this matter held until it is too late for Judge Bennett or his friends to heed it?

Is there anything about the character or standing of the men who got up the anonymous circular, to commend them to the confidence of the people?

Judge Bennett, who has lived in this county nearly fifty years and built up a character for honesty and ability worth more to him than any office, to be stricken down by this kind of contemptible bush-whacking and dishonest juggling with figures in an anonymous circular? Does it appeal to any man's sense of fairness? Reflect upon this matter, and do as you would be done by.

A DESPAIRING CRY.

The edict has gone out from the democratic bosses and it is echoed by their organ, that the city was to conduct the municipal campaign with a hope to win even a ward constable, is to charge the republicans with being controlled by the A. P. A's. This charge, unfounded as it is, may be refuted by any one at all acquainted with the republican nominees. The A. P. A's in Janesville have less control over the movements of the republican party than they have over the democratic. Several times it has happened that democratic A. P. A's have been elected to responsible positions in Janesville, yet the managers paint "Democrat" over the A. P. A. label, and there is not a murmur. The democratic ticket even now is more strongly tinted with the triple trade mark than the republican ticket has ever been.

WILL PAY FOR ITSELF.

Edward M. Hyzer's theory seems to be that the insane and indigent of Rock county should be pastured out during the summer and taken south to winter.

In building a new asylum the county board took a different view. Had the building not been constructed Rock would have been obliged to pay other counties for boarding its insane and would have been deprived of the revenue that will now come from the state. As the board learned by careful investigation an asylum built on modern lines and with room to provide for patients from other counties can be made to pay for itself in a very few years. Other counties are doing this very thing—making the tax payers in other parts of the state supply them with ample asylum buildings. The immediate cost is greater but in the long run it is the wisest of economy.

The Recorder takes most unkindly to its heart of hearts any reference to the letter of the Hon. John Winans to William Smith Esq., and with great blindness springs to the rescue. Roster favors must have been the inspiration, but we assure our neighbor that we will permit no side-show to inspire or deaden the Recorder's non-partisan candidate for judicial honors. If the parties interested in the letter mentioned can endure it, the Gazette can certainly.

Treasurer Murphy is confronted in his canvass by the promises he made to the delegates two years ago. At that time it was thoroughly understood that no further favors were expected. Mr. Fathers withdrew from the canvass with this understanding, and he and his friends feel that he had a right to expect Treasurer Murphy to keep out of the fight this year.

No republican need keep silence over the republican ticket this year. It is a ticket to be proud of—a ticket to preach on the street corners—and this is a good year for republicans to show their colors.

There never was a time when it was more popular to be a republican than this year.

ROSTER ROOSTERS STILL ROBBING.

Trying To Make Dane County Pay Big Bill of Costs.

The roster roosters are still robbing. Now they are trying to make the costs of the case in which they were found guilty of a plot to swindle but in which all swindlers were used alike, as heavy as possible. This caused another contest before Clerk of Court Fehlant over the bill of costs put in by the defendants. Each put in a separate bill of the costs, amounting in the aggregate to about $970. Mr. Olin, for the plaintiffs, contended that the judge had decided that the defendants' interests were united, therefore they were entitled to but one bill of costs. This makes a difference in the bill of about $300, most of which is for the six defendants' attorneys in attendance in court. Mr. Olin contended they are entitled to but one. The clerk decided against him, holding each entitled to a separate bill. Mr. Olin gave notice of an appeal.

Bids on Electric Lights.

Captain Pliny Norcross protests very properly against the idea of receiving bids on electric lights after his bid has been made public. If there is to be any reconsideration it should certainly be on such terms that Captain Norcross' interests are not prejudiced by his promptness in furnishing the city with figures.

A Disputed Case.

Many persons dispute the question as to whether or not baldness caused either by disease or neglect can be cured. In deciding the question allow us to say that most cases can be cured, while others can not. Only a special list of years of experience can tell this. Professor Birkholz, the world-renowned German specialist of the Masonic Temple, Chicago, where those who desire a good head of hair or beard can consult him in private, and free of charge. ## INDIANS CAUGHT "HEAP SKUNKS."

Two Primeval Trappers Sell Their Product in Janesville Yesterday.

Two big brown Indians came to Janesville penniless yesterday, and went away with coin of the realm jingling in their overall pockets. An odor of cured skunk hides and musty milk and musk rat lingered behind them after they left the American Express office, that made Millard Lee sniff when he entered this morning.

"I tell you this is a gamey shop," was Agent McLean's explanation. The "two big Injuns" have been camping all winter on H. L. Skavlem's land at the mouth of Koshkonong creek which empties into the lake of that name. They had five hundred rat skins and sixty skunk pelts and the seasons catch netted them $98. Lucius Kennedy was the buyer and the furs will be shipped. The two braves were rather dirty and loud smelling, yet Mr. Kennedy introduced them to his acquaintances as "two gentlemen of the forest."

To Form a Coxy Engineering Corps.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 30.—Marshal C. Columbus Jones, commander of Coxy's Philadelphia contingent, received a letter from J. W. Ponsonby, a student in the civil engineering department of Lehigh university, at Bethlehem, Pa., assuring Jones of 100 able bodied recruits from the university students. Ponsonby says that two instructors and one professor will join the movement. He says the professor agrees with him that the freedom and equality with which all men are born should be maintained throughout their lives and that such movement as this will tend to that end.

POTENT COMBINATION IN ROCK COUNTY POLITICS.

Board of Supervisors Lifted From the Face of the Earth By E. M. Hyzer and J. H. Haviland Working in Partnership—Their Argument is a Serious One.

Rock county people may at last rest easy. For many moons the absorbing topic of conversation in and about the county at political gatherings, social entertainments, debating societies and church societies has been: "What de J. H. Haviland and Edward M. Hyzer think of the new county poor house and insane asylum? Will the action of the county board taken without consulting either of these gentlemen be allowed by them to pass unnoticed or will they pour down upon the heads of the members of the board the contents of their decanters of wrath and hurl at them their thunderbolts of destruction?"

The agony is over. The action of these gentlemen has been taken and the county board is no more.

Some ignorant person might inquire why Mr. Haviland and Mr. Hyzer allowed themselves to remain so long supinely silent. Why they did not raise their voices in protest at some time during the long period when the question of building the asylum was pending before the board, and as to why Mr. Haviland et al did not go before the board and make their objections in person. And this same ignorant individual might say that Haviland & Co. were in the position of the boy who tried "to eat his cake to keep it too." They were very glad to have the asylum, but now they had secured it they simply desired to indulge themselves in a "kick." Of course to anyone acquainted with those gentlemen such strictures would be manifestly unjust.

This same personage might say that it seemed a little singular that Mr. Hyzer allowed himself to remain silent until the bonds had been issued and until Mr. Hyzer had succeeded in securing the entire bond issue for his client before he thundered forth his denunciations of the action of the board in issuing the bonds—that it seems peculiar for a lawyer to complain of the fact that his own efforts secure interest money to his client. But of course such comments are made by unthinking people only. It might also be said that the Janesville Recorder is remarkably frank in asserting through its own columns that a law was "introduced in the last legislature and rushed through without indorsement; indeed, without the knowledge of the people, which permitted the outrage," when in point of fact the law was introduced and its passage secured by the editor and proprietor of the Recorder, who was at that time a member of the legislature.

The people owe a large debt of gratitude to Haviland & Co., for their disinterested services in their behalf. Having thus satisfactorily disposed of the county insane asylum, it is too much to ask that they also dispose of that still unsettled question as to whether we shall move the city pest house; and if they have leisure time, to determine whether it is advisable to pass the Bland bill over the president's veto. In the meantime the public will confidently hope that the versatile talent of these distinguished gentlemen who have once favored us, will soon dispose of these troublesome and disturbing questions.

NO JOY FOR DEMOCRATS THERE.

Party Question Raised on the Barker Farm Purchase.

It will bother the Recorder to make a party question of the purchase of the Barker farm. Just nine republicans out of twenty-five voted for the Barker farm and eight democrats out of nine voted the same way. Fifteen republicans voted against the Barker site and one democrat. This one democrat lived in Johnstown, so his vote in favor of the "old farm" was natural. Here are the figures:

For Ag'nst	9	15
Republicans	9	15
Democrats	8	1

Winslow's Sidewalk All Right.

F. S. Winslow is savagely assailed by the Recorder for crossing the grade line with his sidewalk. As a matter of fact Mr. Winslow is not building any sidewalk. His walk was laid a year ago, is one inch inside the city surveyor's stake and is exactly in line with all the sidewalks on each side for two blocks.

NEW C. & N. W. TIME CARD SUNDAY.

Better Chicago Connections and Freight Service Will Result.

A change in the Chicago & Northwestern time card will go into effect Sunday and will result in the addition of a freight train to the Janesville service and will give Janesville and Beloit, especially the latter city, much better Chicago service. J. H. Dower's train, which leaves at 7 a. m. will run through to Belvidere instead of stopping at Caledonia. This will enable Beloit people to get to Chicago at 10:30 a. m., an hour earlier than before. The train, on its return trip will reach Janesville at 10:30 p. m. instead of 8:40.

Another fast freight will also be added. It will reach Janesville from Chicago at 1 a. m. and leave a few minutes later for Winona.

Republican candidates are wearing a cheerful smile, sanguine of a complete victory on Tuesday.

OLMSTEAD TRIES TO KILL HIMSELF.

WILLIAM CLIFFORD'S ASSAIL- ANT WANTS TO DIE TOO.

Butting His Brains Out Against the Cell Walls and Self Strangulation Were the Means He Employed—Clifford Is in a Fair Way to Survive.

Guy T. Olmstead, the man who shot Letter Carrier Clifford at the corner of Madison and Clark streets Wednesday noon, made several attempts to commit suicide yesterday at the Harrison street station. All night a close watch was kept over the prisoner, but he seemed to be quiet and slept most of the time.

About 8 o'clock in the morning he awakened suddenly and asked Officer Patrick Bergen, who was on guard before the cell, what time it was. Then he became silent, and for an hour did not speak. He was reclining on a low bench in the cell, and seemed to be resting quietly. Suddenly, however, before the officer realized his intention, Olmstead sprang up and began beating his head against the wall in the cell. Bergen quickly entered and seized him before he had seriously injured himself.

"Let me alone!" cried Olmstead. "I know what I am doing."

After this for a time he was quiet, but during the morning he made two additional attempts of the same nature, but each time was prevented by Bergen from doing himself any injury. At another time he was discovered clutching at his throat with the evident purpose of strangling himself, but in this case he was equally unsuccessful as the officer was in readiness at any moment to place him under restraint if necessary.

It is the opinion of the officers who have been watching him closely that he is demented. He refuses to talk when spoken to, and his actions are not those of a sane man.

The condition of Clifford was unchanged during the day at the Presbyterian hospital. The physicians were successful in their efforts to extract the bullets, and after this operation Clifford seemed to rally in a marked manner. The physicians now say that his recovery is assured, unless blood-poisoning sets in.

Alvin Clifford, who went to Chicago Wednesday evening to attend his brother, telegraphed this morning that there are indications that William will recover, although he is severely wounded. Clifford is receiving good care at the Presbyterian hospital.

BIG HOSPITAL BALL OPENS THE ASYLUM.

COUNTY BOARD MAKE PLANS FOR DEDICATION.

Oak Lawn Directors Are to Be Allowed to Arrange the Affair and it Will Take Such Form As They See Fit—Sixteen Thousand Dollars to Be Raised.

The Oak Lawn hospital trustees will dedicate the new county insane asylum. A resolution offered by Supervisor Vankirk was adopted by the county board today, giving the hospital trustees permission. The time was not fixed but left wholly with the managers of the city hospital. The report of the building committee submitted today stated that the building would not be completed for two weeks. The committee also stated that while $120,000 had been provided for the purchase of the farm and the erection of the buildings, there would be a deficiency of about $16,000, that the contracts together with the purchase of the farm amounted to $136,000. There had been some extra work and some minor expenditures made necessary.

Need of $16,000 More to Meet Bills.

Supervisor Davis presented a resolution authorizing the treasurer to borrow $16,000 or so much thereof as might be necessary to meet the payments of bills audited by the building committee. In case the committee sold the Johnstown farm for $11,000, the treasurer would not need over three or four thousand.

Bills for medical expert testimony in the Ashton murder case were audited at $1,625, being $50 per day for Drs. Kempster and Heckton and $25 per day for local experts.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the purchase of the residence and barns formerly owned by Jules Barker, provided they could be bought for $600. The possession of these buildings will relieve the county of the expense of building more costly barns.

SOMEWHAT HUMOROUS

Didn't Fool Him.
A cook in a cheap boarding house in New York played a little game on a grumbling boarder, a newspaper humorist, by serving him with a piece of sole leather instead of beefsteak.
"You've changed your butcher, Mrs. Hasche," said the boarder, looking up at the landlady, after seeing two or three minutes on the leather.
"Same butcher as usual," replied the boarding mistress with a patronizing smile. "Why?"
"Oh, nothing much," said the humorist, trying to make an impression on the steak with his knife, "only this piece of meat is the tenderest I have struck in this house for some weeks."
—Texas Siftings.

Still Undecided.

"We couldn't think of anything else to do at the club the other night, so we took a secret ballot to decide who was the smartest man in the crowd, who was the laziest, and who was the stingiest. Brown was voted the stingiest and Jones the laziest."
"Who was the smartest?"
"That wasn't decided. Every man voted for himself."—Indianapolis Journal.

GREATLY FELT.

"Well," said the collar to the cuffs, "do you feel the effects of the general dullness?"
"We should say we did," replied the cuffs. "We never met with so many reverses in our lives."—Judge.

Preferred His Company.

He—You were getting ready to go out, and I'm afraid my call is inopportune.
She—Really and truly, I would much rather stay here and talk with you than to keep my engagement this afternoon.

"I am delighted. But can the engagement be broken without causing hard feelings?"
"Oh, yes. The dentist won't mind."—N. Y. Weekly.

G.A.R. NOTICE

We take this opportunity of informing our subscribers that the new Commissioner of Pensions has been appointed. He is an old soldier, and we believe that soldiers and their heirs will receive justice at his hands. We do not anticipate that there will be any radical changes in the administration of pension affairs under the new regime.
We would advise, however, that U. S. soldiers, sailors, and their heirs, take steps to make application at once, if they have not already done so, in order to secure the benefit of the early filing of their claims in case there should be any future pension legislation. Such legislation is seldom retroactive. Therefore it is of great importance that applications be filed in the department at the earliest possible date.
If U. S. soldiers, or their widows, children, or parents desire information in regard to pension matters, they should write to the Press Claims Company at Washington, D. C., and they will prepare and send the necessary application, if they find them entitled under the numerous laws enacted for their benefit. Address:

BUTTONS OF ALL SORTS.

The Popular Ones Are Made of Dresden China, Cut Jet and Pearl.

The button maker's craft is susceptible of quite as surprising a development as any other branch of industry. Buttons, originally a strictly utilitarian article, now often form the sole trimming of gowns or coats and are amply sufficient for that purpose. We have long been able to have our cloth and silk buttons made to order of the same material as the costume for which they are intended. More recently we have been supplied with composition buttons, which are an astonishing imitation of the silk and serge covered article and wear indefinitely, which the latter do not.

This being a season of buttons, a great variety is shown in more expensive styles, as carved mother of pearl and cut jet, while with the fashion of Dresden china umbrella and parasol handles have come Dresden buttons of various sizes, decorated in the same manner and used on rich costumes, especially on court coats. Where buttons are adopted as a garniture, if they are in-

TWENTY YEARS

OF ONE WOMAN'S LIFE

Spent With and For the Benefit of the Women of the World.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

One woman's work has told for good in thousands of homes throughout the world. What a record of helpfulness!

What happiness and comfort that work has brought to thousands of despairing women; what pains banished and how smooth the way was made for weary sufferers, no pen or tongue can ever tell.

Lydia E. Pinkham gave the best of her life to the women of the world, that through her suffering of her sex might be relieved.

Her Vegetable Compound saves women from all diseases of the womb and kidneys. It has stood for twenty years against all cavil, and won the first place in the hearts of women.

Look at the picture of this New York woman, once confined to her bed by chronic female weakness, now able to follow her husband in the Adirondacks on long gunning trips. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made this change in her life.

Just hear this one talk. It does one's heart good. "Female sufferers, hear me! "I was discouraged, broken-hearted. I was so ill with female trouble I could not walk or stand, and had to be assisted to my feet when arising from a chair. My head whirled, and my back ached; but worst of all was that awful crowding-down feeling in my abdomen. "A friend of mine told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; her faith won mine, and now I am well. Oh! how can I return thanks to Mrs. Pinkham? "Every woman troubled with uterus or womb troubles can be cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for it cures me, and will them." — Mrs. KERRISON, Juniata St., Nicetown, Pa. Every druggist has it.

Nearly All Spring Headwear Has Jet, Metal and Lace Ornamentation.

The display of millinery this spring is as gay and varied as any one could desire. The manufacture of artificial flowers has risen from a handicraft almost to an art, and blossoms that are really wonderful imitations of nature crowd the counters of the shops and adorn the fanciful hats that this season has produced. Violets and red roses are the reigning favorites, repeating the purple and carmine tints so fashionable in fabrics. We are evidently entering on a period of frank coloring, for the half tints and subdued shades which have been considered "the thing" heretofore are giving place to brilliant reds, clear blues, vivid greens and unmistakable yellows.

Some very beautiful mixed straws are seen, mainly in combinations of green, pink, black and ceru, and plain neapolitan braids are also shown almost as flexible and soft as muslin. Many of the wide hats have the brim shaped in starlike points, while in others it is bent and twisted in every conceivable fashion. Spangles always appear in the trimming and are used immoderately. A black neapolitan hat trimmed with black band the bent brim covered with black spangles of all shapes and sizes, while in lace hats the pattern is followed out on the net by them. The lace is gathered very little, of course.

Besides the large hats, a number of toques and capotes are shown. The trimming is often allowed to fall on the hair at the back. Sometimes it is ribbon bow, sometimes two or three jet ornaments with pendants, sometimes only a bunch of violets. There is scarcely a hat or bonnet to be seen into the construction of which lace of some sort does not enter, while everything glitters with metallic or jet decoration.

A stringless capote is shown with a crown of spangled guipure. A scant ruffle of lace takes the place of a brim and is arranged to droop upon the hair behind. A black rosette is placed in the middle and on each side, and in front are two black ostrich plumes.

Stock Yards Trust.

CHICAGO, March 30.—English, eastern, and local capitalists are again turning their attention to the stock yards, where, within the last few years, so much money has been centered. In a short time it is expected the consolidation of a certain packing house under the name of the International Packing and Provision company, which has had an existence, in name at least, for the last two years, will be an actual fact. It is also expected that the same consolidation will have a strong and active opposition.

THE best investment

in real estate is to keep buildings well painted. Paint protects the house and saves repairs. You sometimes want to sell—many a good house has remained unsold for want of paint. The rule should be, though, "the best paint or none." That means

Strictly Pure White Lead

You cannot afford to use cheap paints. The best effecting is strictly Pure White Lead, look at the brand; any of these are safe:

These colors are sold in one-pound cans, each can being sufficient to tint 25 pounds of strictly Pure White Lead, the desired shades they are in no sense ready-mixed paints, but a combination of perfectly pure colors in the handiest form to tint strictly Pure White Lead.
